Brother Patrick T. Shea, O.F.M., J.C.D., is both a civil and a canon lawyer as well as a professed member of Sacred Heart Province of the Order of Friars Minor. Brother Shea currently serves as General Counsel of the Legal Office of the Catholic Diocese of Cleveland. He earned his J.D. degree in 1976 from the Law School of the University of Wisconsin and his J.C.D. degree from The Catholic University of America in 1993. Brother Shea will provide us with an overview of the origins and applicability of canon law, which is the internal law of the Roman Catholic Church, in a manner that is interesting and useful for civil lawyers.
