

Cleveland Lawyers for Life: 2009 Membership Application

Use your gifts

If you are a lawyer who acknowledges the right shared by all human beings to live life from conception until natural death, then you have received great gifts in the form of your lawyerly talents and your knowledge of the truth. As a lawyer, you have a unique ability to see through the sophisticated lies which permeate and sustain the culture of death and form the foundation of contemporary arguments in favor of legalized abortion, embryonic stem cell research, assisted suicide and other attacks on human life and family life. You are also gifted in getting these ideas across to your friends, co-workers, elected representatives and judges in ways they will understand and appreciate. Make no mistake: The proponents of the culture of death are busy all around us. So why not get busy yourself by becoming better educated through CLFL, and prepare yourself to counter the frequently well-intentioned but inevitably harmful ideas in that part of the world, whether it be big or small, where your gifts and influence make a difference.

I'm not a lawyer

That's OK. Many of our members are not lawyers. Our members are focused on staying current on life legal issues like those mentioned above.

How will membership help me?

Membership keeps you advised of current issues through CLFL speakers and our web page, including pro-life links. We are also reviving a periodic Lifelaw Mail to keep members abreast of regional life-related law and policy. Further, join this year with a premium membership, and you may attend two meetings (even those offering CLE) free.

What have you done lately?

Every quarter, CLFL has presented dynamic pro-life speakers such as Father Frank Pavone (Priests for Life), Mike Koelzer, Rph (Pharmacists for Life), and Father Thomas Euteneuer (Human Life International). We have offered CLE credit courses on life issues surrounding death and withdrawal of life support (Marilyn Crisafi, Esq.), abortion law (Denise Mackura, Esq.), and adoption law (Roseanne Hilow, Esq.)

What can I do for CLFL?

1. Join us!

$50 Regular Membership (Lifelaw Mail subscription)

$100 Premium (two free CLFL meetings)

Name _____

Affiliation _____

Address _____

Email _____

Phone _____

2. Help us!

Can you help if questions arise in any of these areas?

Business law

Constitutional law (First Amendment protections)

Criminal law

Domestic relations (Adoption/Parental Rights)

Entertainment law (film)

Estate Planning (health care POA)

Intellectual Property (copyright law)

IT (web law)

Probate (POA, Guardians)

Public law

Rights of Pregnant Minors

Tax law